

Working with Strata Consulting

Allow Strata Consulting to create a working experience that will change your outlook towards your work-home life forever.

At Strata Consulting we have a model which will allow you to work the hours that suit your lifestyle whether that will be 60 hours per week or 20 hours per week.

We want to hear from Professional Recruitment Consultants with at least 3 years experience preferably within IT that are simply looking for a company that will offer them the freedom to choose the hours to suit them but still manage to earn a decent income from the Client fees generated by them.

This can be achieved at Strata Consulting.

We want to hear from Professional IT Recruitment Consultants that are passionate about Client relations and delivery.

In return we will offer a comprehensive package including:

Flexible hours

Tremendous IT Support (includes home-workers)

Fantastic administration support and management (includes home-workers)

Friendly and supportive working environment

1:1 Training and Coaching

Uncapped earnings.
